

Englesea Brook Zoom Bible Studies: A Way of Life for Advent

Led by Rev Dr Roger L Walton
Every Wednesday 10.30 – 12 noon

The studies will weave together the themes of Advent and a Methodist Way of Life, exploring a variety of bible passages and answering such questions as: What really matters? Who are we? and, How should we live?

- Wed 23 November Searching for a simple way: What really matters? An exploration of Micah 6 and the prophets.
- Wed 30 November People of the Way :Who are we? The earliest name for followers of Jesus, its roots and meaning.
- Wed 7 December Routines, Rules and Rhythms: How should we live? Patterns of Christian practice in Paul's letters.
- Wed 14 December A Methodist Way of Life in Advent: Ready for what? A look at the notion of Advent, through a range of biblical passages, to explore what it means to be ready.

Roger Walton is a supernumerary presbyter living in the Manchester and Stockport Methodist District, who has served in circuits, as Connexional Secretary for Adult Learning, as Chair of Yorkshire West District and was President of Conference 2016-17. In the last few of years, he has been working on a Methodist Way of Life. He is a widower, has grown up children, and since January 2012 has been a granddad. Yet he still plays a mean game of table-tennis!
